Property Description

This beautifully renovated, southwest-facing apartment is a rare gem located in the prestigious Japanese Gardens within Marina Puente Romano—one of the most sought-after residential complexes on the Coast. Elevated and situated all on one level, the property features a bright entrance hall leading into a spacious living and dining area, which opens onto a partly covered private terrace with serene views of mature gardens and the communal swimming pool. The sleek, contemporary open-plan kitchen includes a central island and also enjoys access to the terrace, perfect for entertaining. The apartment comprises a luxurious en-suite master bedroom, two additional bedrooms, and two modern bathrooms—one of them also en-suite. Designed for both style and comfort, the home boasts marble floors, fitted wardrobes, electric blinds, double glazing, and a full furniture package. Additional features include air conditioning, satellite TV, an alarm system, automatic irrigation, a laundry and utility room, video entry, and 24-hour security. It also comes with a private underground parking space and storage room. Ideally located close to schools, transport, and all amenities, this is a truly exceptional property in immaculate condition, offering a rare lifestyle opportunity in one of Marbella's finest beachfront communities.
