Property Description

This spectacular duplex of 4 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms, recently renovated, represents a harmonious fusion between the purity of Scandinavian design and the essence of the Mediterranean lifestyle. Bright, spacious and carefully conceived, it conveys a feeling of warmth and comfort thanks to its natural wood finishes, its sophisticated microcement staircase and delicate stucco mouldings of Nordic inspiration.

The day area, open concept, integrates kitchen, dining room and living room in a continuous space that extends to a south facing terrace. From there you enjoy views of the sea completely clear, creating a perfect framework both to start the day calmly and to contemplate memorable sunsets. The large windows flood the house of natural light, reinforcing its serene and welcoming atmosphere.

Located in a quiet and perfectly maintained community, the residential offers a peaceful environment and an attractive communal pool. A few minutes from the golf course of La Quinta, renowned restaurants and vibrant Marbella lifestyle, this property is an authentic gem for those who value the timeless design, the privileged views and an exceptional location.
