Property Description

This exquisite three-floor estate in Sierra Blanca, Costa del Sol, blends neoclassical architecture with modern luxury. Surrounded by award-winning gardens with Italian cypress and mature olive trees. Inside, the home features soaring ceilings, travertine floors, fabric-clad walls, and gold-plated details. The layout is thoughtfully designed with seven en-suite bedrooms—three on each main level—and a private office with a built-in safe. Red wood doors and full soundproofing ensure peace and privacy. The chef's kitchen boasts Miele appliances, dual fridges and freezers, and a professional ice maker. Outside, a 25-meter saltwater pool is complemented by an outdoor kitchen and BBQ area—perfect for entertaining. The basement includes a cinema, a vast open space ready for a gym or games lounge, and pre-installation for a spa and sauna. A 12-car garage easily accommodates sports cars. Sustainability is built-in, with solar panels, water purification, and advanced glazing for insulation and security. Set in a prestigious gated community near top schools, luxury boutiques, and fine dining, this estate offers unmatched privacy, style, and views of the Mediterranean and La Concha Mountain.
